

Eppendorf Limited Product Warranty

Eppendorf S.I.P. Bioprocess Instruments

Eppendorf North America (“Eppendorf”) warrants to the purchaser (“Customer”) of Eppendorf New Brunswick™ Sterilize in Place (“S.I.P.”) branded Bioprocess equipment (“Product”) that the product will be free of defects in workmanship and materials for a period of twelve (12) months covering parts and labor from the date of shipment from Eppendorf (the “Warranty Period”).

This Limited Warranty does not extend to consumable items such as glassware, cables, sensors, tubing etc, or parts that have been subject to misuse, neglect, accident or improper installation or application; nor shall it extend to equipment or parts which have been repaired or altered outside of Eppendorf’s warranty service procedures without prior approval by Eppendorf. This Limited Warranty is not transferable and does not apply to products purchased for resale, unless customer obtains Eppendorf’s prior written approval at the time of purchase.

Any non Eppendorf brand equipment sold through Eppendorf, such as chillers, carry their original manufacturer’s warranty and will repair or replace based on their warranty guidelines. Procurement of loaner equipment will be provided if dictated by the original manufacturers policy.

Notice of a defect in a Product must be received by Eppendorf prior to the expiration of the Limited Warranty Period and within thirty (30) days after any alleged defect becomes reasonably apparent to Customer. During the Limited Warranty Period, Eppendorf will, at its sole discretion, repair or replace a defective part, component or instrument, free of charge for labor and parts provided that the Product is inspected by an Eppendorf technical staff and/or shipped for repair in accordance with Eppendorf’s warranty service procedures. Eppendorf reserves the right to determine the best way to service warranty issues. If Eppendorf elects to repair a defective Product, in Eppendorf’s sole discretion, it may use new or remanufactured parts that are substantially equivalent to the originally installed parts in function and performance.

Such parts will be warranted for the longer of ninety (90) days or the remainder of the Limited Warranty Period, but shall not extend the Limited Warranty Period for the Product.

Excluded from this Limited Warranty is any damage caused during any shipment/transport/movement of the Product following its initial receipt by the Customer and any damage caused by: (a) accident, impacts, fluids, fire, flood, wind, earthquake, lightening or similar disaster, unauthorized modifications including removal or exchange of instrument components or identification labels, attachments of peripherals; improper use, installation or problems with the electrical supply; improper maintenance; any other misuse, abuse, improper per attachment of any non Eppendorf labeled chargers and/or power supplies, mishandling or software viruses; (b) neglect, defacing, spilling or other forms of contamination, outside of the suggested handling and applications within the product instruction manual; (c) use of the Product outside recommended environmental conditions, including but not limited to failure to meet requirements of ambient temperature, lubrication, humidity or magnetic field influences, and failure to provide and maintain power sources that adhere to the appropriate voltage requirements as determined within the specifications of the product; (d) installation or maintenance of the Product by Customer, or installation or maintenance of the Product by a service supplier not authorized by Eppendorf, in either case beyond the user maintenance prescribed in the Product operation manual. Furthermore, this limited warranty does not cover software including issues in which control computer specifications do not meet required functionality and features according to the specifications described in the Product Operation Manual, as well as computer and computer components and linked network systems. Reported software issues regarding maintenance of data files and where evidence exists of removal or de-installation of certain components, features or programs, are further excluded from Limited Warranty coverage.
